

Opportunities In Gourd College

Hi Everyone, (from an eMail received from Georgia)

We've had some wonderful opportunities come about in our plans for the Gourd College this year. They have just been finalized, and I expect the teacher slots to suddenly fill up as a result. I wanted to let you know about the interesting changes and give you a chance to participate.

Please go to our website at <http://www.sunshinegourdcollege.com/> to see details about the changes under "Call for Instructors" which was just put online, and let me know if you are still interested.

In a nutshell, the dates are now November 9-11 and all teachers are being offered $200 to teach a class! GGS has generously awarded a grant to pay the teachers. All classes will be free to eligible GGS members. The new theme is Christmas in the Sunshine.

Please think about joining our "faculty" this year. We expect three days of full classes. Plus the GGS Fall elections meeting will be held there on Saturday evening. We still have open time slots in our teaching schedule.

An application to teach is on the website. Once you read about the weekend, feel free to encourage friends and other GGS members to teach as well. We don't have an email list, so we are counting on word of mouth to get the word out. We hope you decide to get involved.

Thanks,

Kathy
